FAMOUS CASES HEARD OVER THE YEARS....

John Lennon's sensational court case regarding the sale of sexually explicit lithograph drawing was thrown out on a technicality in 1970.

Mick Jagger spent time here defending his name when it was alleged he was caught in possession of cannabis (and Marianne Faithful!).

Keith Richards received a £205 fine here in 1973 for possession of marijuana, heroin and mandrax as well as a Smith and Wesson revolver and an antique shot gun, both held without a licence.

Oscar Wilde also had the start of his 'Queensbury' case heard in this building.
