White Wines

Woolloomooloo Chardonnay, Australia, 2013   £5.00 glass / £19.95 bottle

Displays an enticing nose of peach, citrus and lemon aromas. The tropical fruit flavours and luscious mouth feel mid-palate complement each other to deliver a deliciously rounded wine with a crisp and clean finish balanced nicely by gentle acidity. Best when lightly chilled, it is an ideal accompaniment to fish and seafood.

Jean de Laroche Sauvignon Blanc, France, 2013   £5.50 glass / £21.50 bottle

Passion fruit and freshly cut grass on the nose; followed by lemons, limes and chalk flavours on the palate. Refreshingly high acidity and a classic steely citrus finish.

Colli Argento Pinot Grigio, Italy, 2013   £6.00 glass / £23.50 bottle

Pale wine with lime hues. This crisp, fruity pear and apple wine from the hilly vineyards of the Veneto region is ideal either as an aperitif or accompaniment to light meals.

Anane Chardonnay Reserva, Chile, 2012   £7.50 glass / £32.50 bottle

Soft melon and baked apple flavours, with well integrated vanilla spice and a long finish. Highly recommended with poultry, pork, any vegetarian and fish dishes.

Domaine La Barbotaine Sancerre Blanc, France, 2013   £8.50 glass / £35.50 bottle

Classic lemon, cut grass and fresh asparagus nose, fresh high acidity and great mineral elegance makes this low volume, family made, hand cared for Sancerre stand out from the crowd.

Georges Michel Golden Mile Sauvignon Blanc, New Zealand, 2013   £9.00 glass / £36.00 bottle

The dry lingering palate showcases ripe – filled gooseberry flavours, sweet capsicum and herbaccous aromas

Il Poggio Gavi di Gavi Piedmonte, Italy, 2013   £42.95 bottle

Wonderful mineral and lime nose. Freshly cut green apples, limestone and lemons give a really “zing” to this wine which is complimented by the very crisp acidity

Domaine Vincent Sauvestre Chabbis, France   £49.50 bottle

This Chablis receives no oak treatment to ensure strong varietal and terroir characteristics. Attractive pale straw colour with typical crisp, citrus flavours which burst on the taste buds and long, mouth-filling fruit flavours which linger. Ideal with all seafood and shellfish dishes and soft cheeses.

Red Wines

Woolloomooloo Shiraz, Australia, 2013  £5.00 glass / £19.95 bottle

A blood plum flesh in colour with freshly picked blackcurrants accompanied by black cherries and spicy cinnamon aromas on the nose and vanilla hint at the back of the throat. A soft palate of luscious blackcurrants sprinkled with clove pepper spice, and tightly structured tannins. Match with port & garlic marinated red meats with mashed or sweet potato.

Inu Merlot, Chilie, 2013  £5.50 glass / £21.50 bottle

Velvety with plum flavour, capsicum and some vegetable and earthy notes such as fennel, leather, bell pepper as well as floral and herbal notes such as oregano, rosemary, sage.

Chianti Roccapia DOCG, Italy, 2013  £6.50 glass / £22.50 bottle

Bottling 6 months after harvesting. Red cherry and pepper spice on the nose, well integrated tannin and fresh acidity, balanced by the intense cherry and redcurrant flavours that are fresh and vibrant.

Carelli 34º Malbec, Argentina  £6.50 glass / £25.95 bottle

Great plum and cranberry perfume with some good spice and leafy secondary characters. Soft but plentiful tannins work well with the acidity and depth of fruit flavour on the palate, making the wine very drinkable, with or without food.

Castrijo Rioja Crianza, Spain, 2011  £6.75 glass / £26.95 bottle

The Crianza has a great fruit driven nose, with fresh plums and raspberries dominating however on the palate the typical cigar, cranberry and vanilla flavours take over, balancing well with the rounded tannins and high acidity. A modern take on a Rioja but still retaining the classic structure and flavours.

Pedroncelli Bushnell Single Vineyard Zinfandell, USA, 2011  £9.00 glass / £35.00 bottle

Very fragrant nose of ripe raspberries and sweet black pepper followed by spicy, black fruit compote intensity on the palate. Structured, rounded and full in the mouth, this wine has a long, lingering finish laced with slight toasted oak undertones.

Domaine Moillard Hautes Cotes de Nuits Rouge Pinot Noir, France, 2012  £39.00 bottle

Sour plums and redcurrants on the rich nose, followed by cranberries, white pepper and spice on the palate. Typical high acidity balances the wine well and the finish is refreshing and dangerously moreish!

Chateau Criox de Thomas St Georges St Emilion, France, 2011  £44.50 bottle

Classic St Emilion, plum and fruitcake nose, with great spice and red fruit flavours on the palate. An elegant wine, with a delicious long finish.
